Continuation of 2. NOTE: Applicant initially claims the text for individual characters in a dialogue having first and second indicia respective to the individual characters text. The newly added claim feature "the first indicia being unique to the dialogue of the first character" creates a new issue because defining unique indicia for the dialogue, which defines a conversation between two or more characters, was not previously claimed..

Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: of the arguments as set forth in both the final rejection and the advisory action issued 10/25/02.
